A PEEK AT THE WEEK

Reading: Today the students worked on a study guide for their test over the memoir My Life With Chimpanzees by Jane Goodall. Their first selection test for My Perspectives is tomorrow. Last week Friday a Quizlet was posted in order to help the students study for their test. They can review the study guide we went over in class today and the Quizlet to help them study. Along with those two tools, they should look through the highlighting and annotating we did together in class over the past few weeks.

On Wednesday, we will review the genre' historical fiction. We will then start our next selection from My Perspectives, which is historical fiction, entitled "Hachiko: The True Story of a Loyal Dog."

Wordly Wise: We started unit 2 today in class. All week the students will be working on their word maps for the 10 words from the unit. These are due on Friday.

L.Arts: We will begin reviewing the six traits of writing this week. We will discuss ideas, organization, and choosing more mature words while writing.
