

3. On the map, use a bright color to draw a line around all the areas of Harlem that were mostly African American by 1913.
4. On the map, use a different bright color to draw a line around all the areas of Harlem that were mostly African American by 1925.
5. On the map, use another color to draw a line around all the areas of Harlem that were mostly African American by 1930.

ANALYZING MAPS

1. Place By what year did the area around 140th Street and 7th Avenue become populated primarily by African Americans?
_____
_____
2. Movement What direction would a person travel to go from the Harlem Courthouse to the Cotton Club?
_____
_____
3. Region What four streets bordered the main area that was populated mostly by African Americans by 1913?
_____
_____
4. Rank Arrange the following parks in order of nearest to farthest from the Dunbar Apartments: Central Park, Riverside Park, Colonial Park, Mt. Morris Park.
_____
_____
5. Compare/Contrast In 1915 would a person who wanted to live in a predominately African-American neighborhood be more likely to move to an area around "Sugar Hill" or Connie's Inn? Explain your answer.
_____
_____

The Roaring Twenties

History and Geography

Harlem, 1913-1930

A large number of African Americans moved north during the early years of the 20th century. Many settled in Harlem, a section of New York City. By 1930 several neighborhoods in Harlem were comprised primarily of African Americans. Study the map below and answer the questions that follow.

MAP ACTIVITY

1. On the map, write an X on Langston Hughes' house.
2. On the map, draw a line to show a direct route from Marcus Garvey's house to his headquarters.