

Name Key

Skeletons DLR 3

Day 1

Correct these sentences.

1. Young insects change in size and shape as they grow up. (circled)

2. skeletons give animals the power <sup>sp</sup> to walk <sup>climb</sup> climb, swim, or jump. (circled)

Highlight the auxiliary verb in the sentence below and underline the verb phrases twice.

3. If you twist your ankle suddenly, you may tear and stretch the ligaments in the ankle joint.

Cross out the prepositional phrase in the sentences and label the objects.

4. Scientists compare ancient bones ~~to bones of animals~~ living today.

5. For ~~four days~~, archeologists dug trenches ~~under the surface of the parking lot~~.

Day 2

Complete the analogy.

1. ladybug : insect :: spider : arachnid

Correct these sentences.

2. our without ~~are~~ skeletons, we wouldn't be able to use ~~flair pens~~ jump, or dance. (circled)

3. Some ~~sum~~ animals, such as the jelly fish, don't have skeletons. (circled)

Underline the cause and circle the effect.

4. A tarantula is flexible because each of its legs have seven segments.

Highlight the auxiliary verb in the sentence below and underline the verbs/verb phrase twice. (Not is NOT a verb.)

5. You may call them all bugs, but spiders and scorpion ~~aren't~~ insects.

Name _____

Day 3

Correct these sentences

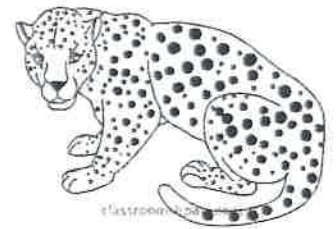

- both the sharks upper and lower jaws move forward to grab it's prey. <sup>SP</sup> forward its
- as a tarantula grows it sheds its exoskeleton frum time too time. <sup>SP</sup> from to

Declarative, Interrogative, Imperative, or Exclamatory?

- What an amazing animal the leopard is Exclamatory
- Please research an animal for your PBA imperative

Highlight the auxiliary verb in the sentence below and underline the verbs/verb phrase twice. (Not is NOT a verb.)

- Leopards' prey may not notice the leopard until it is too late.

Day 4

Cross off the prepositional phrases in this sentence. Label the objects of the prepositions.

- Leopards wait ~~for their prey~~ ~~in shadows~~ or ~~in shaded grass~~.

Are the following nouns proper or common? Write a P for proper, and a C for common.

- Phillipa P archaeologist C church C Richard III P king C

Correct these sentences.

- metamorfosis is the process thru which some animals change from berth to adulthood. <sup>SP</sup> Metamorphosis through birth
- when is the last time you thowt about the Skeleton inside you? <sup>SP</sup> thought

Underline the verbs and verb phrase(s) twice.

- Philippa Langley's team had started digging in 2012.
- They believed King Richard III might be buried at the site of the old church.
- The archaeologists were making an amazing discovery.