

WEBSITES

* As with all websites, please preview them and then help your child to navigate through the first few times.

Website to search for applications: <http://www.smartappsforkids.com> *has free apps of the week, guides you to apps that are free and charge to purchase as well as gives descriptions.

If you child has a HearBuilder account, the website link is:

my.hearbuilder.com

Articulation:

www.quia.com/pages/havemorefun.html *Games include memory, hangman, word searches, jeopardy. There are links to different sounds your child is working on.

<http://puzzlemaker.discoveryeducation.com> *Student or parent can make word searches or crossword puzzles using sounds

<http://juniorsweb.com/slp/index.asp> *Variety of activities

http://speechtx.com/articulation/artic_games.htm *Downloadable flashcards, mini books etc. separated by targeted sounds

www.speakingofspeech.com *Free Materials from other speech pathologists around the country, click on Materials Exchange, click Articulation, then click on the sound your child is working on

Language:

www.literative.com *Registration is FREE, contains animated books, little quizzes, activities such as memory games, matching sounds and sequencing!

www.flocabulary.com *Some free videos, free trial option or paying option. It has “raps” about moon phases, planets, writing/reading paragraphs.

www.starfall.com *FREE interactive site with animated stories/vocabulary and games.

www.speakingofspeech.com *Free Materials from other speech pathologists around the country, click on Materials Exchange, click Language, then click on the area your child is working on for games/activities.