

Name: _____

Middle East Daily Life Station Activity

Station 1: Educate Girls, Change the world-

Read the article titled, "Educate Girls, Change the World." Answer the following questions in complete sentences:

- 1) Name and describe 3 of the 5 ingredients needed to build successful schools for girls in the Middle East.

- 2) Name three barriers to education of girls in Central Asia. (What keeps them from getting an education?)

- 3) What are three benefits to educating girls for the Middle East.

Station 2: Dreidel

Read the information on how to play dreidel first. Answer the questions below, and then the fun begins! Play dreidel and be sure to record everyone's scores in the chart below. You can play additional games until time is up.

- 1) When was the game "dreidel" usually played?

- 2) Who played dreidel?

- 3) What language is the term "dreidel" and what does it mean?

Time to play: Use the Vary the game rules. Two people can spin at a time. – Record scores on next page.

Dreidel Game #1

Player	Record score on each spin	Final score

Station 3: Middle Eastern Food- The Falafel

Read the information on the Falafel and answer the following questions in complete sentences.

- 1) What is a falafel (give a detailed description)?
- 2) Two groups of people argue over who can claim the falafel as it's national food, who are they?
- 3) How long does it take to cook a falafel?
- 4) What is a falafel sometimes called?
- 5) How is a falafel different from its nickname mentioned in question #4?