Students need to be bringing a fully charged iPad to school. Your help with this is greatly appreciated. Students should also be bringing their charge cord to school daily. Students also need headphones daily. Students should also be bringing a silent reading book from home in case they finish assignments early. Thank you!

A Note From Mr. Lesniak - Assistant Principal

We had a wonderful picture day! The office will send a ConnectEd out when proofs are available online. Picture packages are ordered entirely through VIP's website and will ship directly to you at home. If you have any questions, please email Mr. Lesniak at elesniak@nlsd122.org.

Math- Begin Unit 3

Our current assessment topics include:

Read and write Decimals, Compare decimals to the thousandths, Round decimals, Add and subtract decimals, Plot points on a coordinate grid, add and subtract mixed numbers, multiply fractions, Multiply and divide whole numbers and fractions.

Students can access math notes in their math Google Classroom. They have also taken notes in their math spiral. Students should be reviewing their notes on a nightly basis. They may use IXL for skills review and Reflex for fact review.

Ms. Good

Next week we will be continuing Unit 3.

Please ask your child to see the graded assessments that I have sent home with them. Everyday Math grades are NOT in Power School.

- Please be sure to check your child's assignment notebook each night for homework. We write down everything we do in class and circle or highlight what is for homework.

- Students can access math notes in their math Google Classroom. They have also taken notes in their math spiral.

Mrs. Sieger

ELA: Next week in ReadyGEN, we will be finishing our novel, Night of the Spadefoot Toad!! The selection test for that novel will be on Thursday, Nov. 12. We have thoroughly enjoyed this book! Finding the theme of a story is still our reading skill. The Spelling list is #10 with more Final Syllables (-er, ar and or). That test will be on Friday, Nov. 13th.

*Please check Power School for any missing assignments your child may have. The correct assignments are there.

Mrs. Worden

We will be finishing our novel, Night of the Spadefoot Toads on Monday. Our selection test will be on Thursday, November 12. Students were given a vocabulary packet they can use to study. Students will see a new story on the test that they will need to apply the skills we have been learning about to. We will be on List #10 in Spelling, which is final syllables -ar, -er, and -or. Our test will be on Friday, November 13. In Grammar, we continue to learn about verbs and indefinite pronouns. In writing, Mrs. Worden continues to read and offer feedback about student's narratives. We will be starting compound words in Foundational Skills. Students should be reading 20 minutes every school night! Thank you and have a great weekend!
