

ReadyGEN Study Guide
Unit 3 Module A
Lessons 13-18

Story: Earthshaker's Bad Day and Monster's Beneath the Sea

Readers understand that different types of texts can be used to analyze similar topics and ideas.

Writers understand that evidence can be drawn from both literary and informational texts to state and support opinions about a topic.

Foundational Skill: Latin Roots aqua-, dict-
 Prefixes -im, -in

Spelling Words Spell and use correctly in daily writing.	Vocabulary Words Understand the meaning of the word and be able to use it correctly in a sentence.
Words with Double Consonants List 22 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. tomorrow 2. written 3. offer 4. current 5. borrow 6. bottle 7. suffer 8. lettuce 9. different 10. ridden 11. slippers 12. saddle 13. rabbit 14. odd 15. grasshopper 16. shudder 17. matter 18. bubble 19. worry 20. hobby 	Transport- to move or carry Summons- to call or beckon to come over Represent- symbolize, something that stands for something else Practical- easy, realistic, able to do Propelled- forced, to move (usually forward) Commotion- noisy, confusing Decaying- fading, rotting, decomposing Torrent- a strong and fast stream of water or other liquid