

A disease in which cells grow abnormally is _____

How are communicable diseases passed?

When the immune system has a glitch or it makes the wrong antibodies, you may have an

*From your study sheet, list the communicable diseases.

An illness that causes the lungs to fill with fluid is

A tumor is

6 lifestyle factors that contribute to heart disease, cancer and stroke are:

If the pancreas does not make insulin, a person has

A substance that causes cancer is called

Can most viruses live in the air very long?

Define atherosclerosis and arteriosclerosis.

What is a stroke?

What is cardiac arrest?

What is hypertension?

Is mononucleosis the same as a cold?

The addicting drug in tobacco is called

The oldest most abused drug is

List some of the risks of binge drinking:

The main cancer causing substance in tobacco smoke is