WHAT WE'RE LEARNING

Reading: As we begin our new book, The Case of the Gasping Garbage, students will read with the purpose of understanding the character's actions and motivations. We will also explore how a character's actions contribute to the sequence of events in the story.

Writing: Our focus remains with narrative writing. We will continue to incorporate all story elements in our own writing. We will also dive deeper into character development by completing character sketches.

Spelling: Our next spelling test is on Friday, September 13th. Contracts due on 9/13.

Math: We will continue on Unit 1, with a focus on elapsed time, scaled bar graphs, and multiplication strategies.
