

|                  |  |
|------------------|--|
| corrode   | -to eat or wear away by degrees, usually a chemical action   |
| corrosion | -the process or the result of corroding  |
| debris    | -broken, scattered remains-litter, rubbish   |
| elated    | -happy and excited;overjoyed   |
| elation   | -a feeling of great joy and excitement   |
| exploit   | -a brave or daring act; an adventure-to make full use of; to utilize-to use in a selfish way; to take advantage of |
| leeway    | -an extra amount of time or space that allows some freedom   |
| miniature | -on a small scale-a very small copy-a small painting, especially a portrait  |

|                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| mobile      | -an artistic structure with parts that move easily                                      |
| onset       | -a start or a beginning   |
| ooze        | -soft, watery mud, as at the bottom of a lake or the sea-to leak out slowly         |
| pathetic    | -causing feeling of pity or sorrow-held in low esteem;arousing scorn            |
| preliminary | -coming at the beginning;coming before the main event or activity                   |
| quest       | -a hunt or search   |
| restrain    | -to hold back; to keep under control  |
| restraint   | -a holding back or keeping under control-something used to control or hold in check |

|                |  |
|----------------|--|
| salvage | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-to save from destruction or loss</li><li>-property saved from destruction or loss</li></ul> |
| scour   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>-to clean by scrubbing hard</li><li>-to search thoroughly</li></ul>                          |