Reading

In conclusion of Unit 1 Module B, we will take our End of Unit Assessments this week. Therefore, we will not read a new ReadyGen story. Also, in preparation for our field trip to The Underground Railroad we will explore two short stories about the underground railroad. The stories we will read are Henry's Freedom Box and Follow the Drinking Gourd.

Grammar

We will be reviewing grammar skills that have been covered throughout this unit. There skills include nouns, proper nouns, adjectives and conjunctions.

Phonics

We will review the phonics skills covered throughout this unit.

Spelling

Due to our review week we will not have a spelling list this week. There are vocabulary words that pair with our stories this week that we will be focusing on. However, there will not be a spelling test this Friday.

Writing

We will continue to practice informative writing as the students research an animal of their choice and gather and group information to begin their rough drafts. Additionally, we will be writing an "I am..." poem as a concluding activity from reading Henry's Freedom Box.

Math

Unit 3 skills for this week include a review of area, partitioning rectangles and bar graphs, exploring multiplication squares and the commutative property of multiplication.

Science

We will continue Chapter 2 of our plant and animal Life Cycles science lessons. The animals we will focus on this week are the life cycles of mammals and reptiles.
