OFFICIAL SCHOOL CALENDAR CHANGE

Dear New Lenox School District 122 Families:

Last week the Governor signed into law SB 28 which eliminates the new (never implemented) official school calendar rules and reverts back to the original official school calendar rules. Basically, the legislators implemented new rules for 2019-2020 and then changed it back before the calendar began. Therefore, we are forced to use the previous guidelines for this upcoming school year. I've attached a revised calendar for the 2019-2020 school year. This revision allows the District to count parent-teacher conferences as student attendance days which then allows us to utilize two more teacher institute days and reduce the number of ½ day teacher inservices. In addition, we are also waiting for guidance on the possibility of e-learning days if emergency days are used.

Below is a synopsis of the changes:

- There are no changes in August, September, December, January, April, May and June.
- In November, everything remains unchanged; however, the District may “count” the Parent-Teacher Conference Days as two additional days of student attendance. Keep in mind that students still do not attend that day.
- In October, the ½ Day Teacher Inservice on October 11th has been eliminated. Students will attend school for a full day.
- In February, the ½ Day Teacher Institute on February 14th has been changed to a full day Teacher Institute. Therefore, children will not attend school for a full day instead of ½ day.
- In March, the ½ Day Teacher Inservice on March 13th has been eliminated. Students will attend school for a full day.
- Also, in March, a full day Teacher Institute Day has been scheduled on March 27th; therefore, students will not attend school on that day.

The good news is that the first and last dates of the school year remain the same. In addition, winter and spring breaks remain the same. I apologize for any inconvenience this might have caused your household. Hopefully, there will be no more “surprise” changes in legislation.

The District will have the new calendar posted by the end of the day on our website.
